Hi Jay,

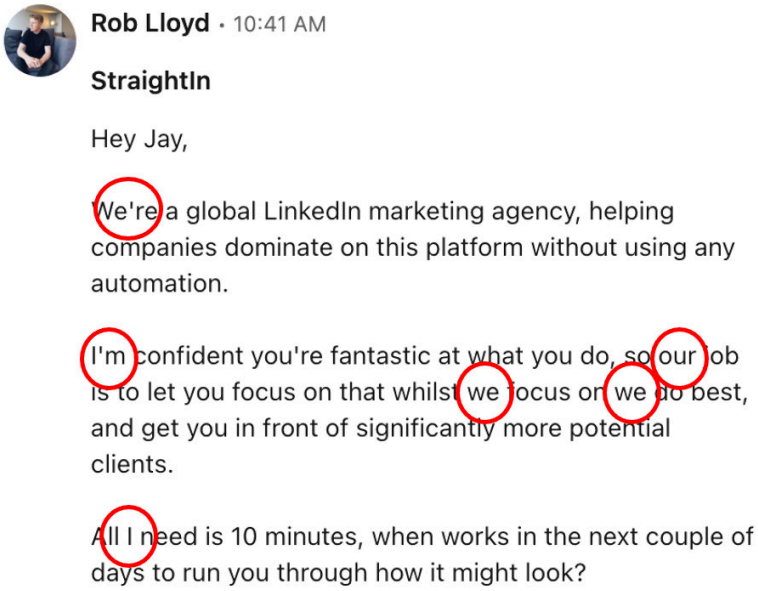

I know it might sound too good to be true, but do hear me out! The zero-risk opportunity I am referring to is Wurkzen - an all-in-one software for entrepreneurs and the best partner your agency will ever have.

Wurkzen is growing its partner network so I thought I'd reach out. I'm sure you're asking, well Rick, what's in it for me? Well how about:

1️⃣ New revenue streams.
2️⃣ More conversions / fewer lost sales.
3️⃣ Increased customer retention.
4️⃣ More cross-sell opportunities.
5️⃣ Lower OPEX while achieving all of the above.

Should I keep going on? Or should we book a call and demo?

Hey Jay,

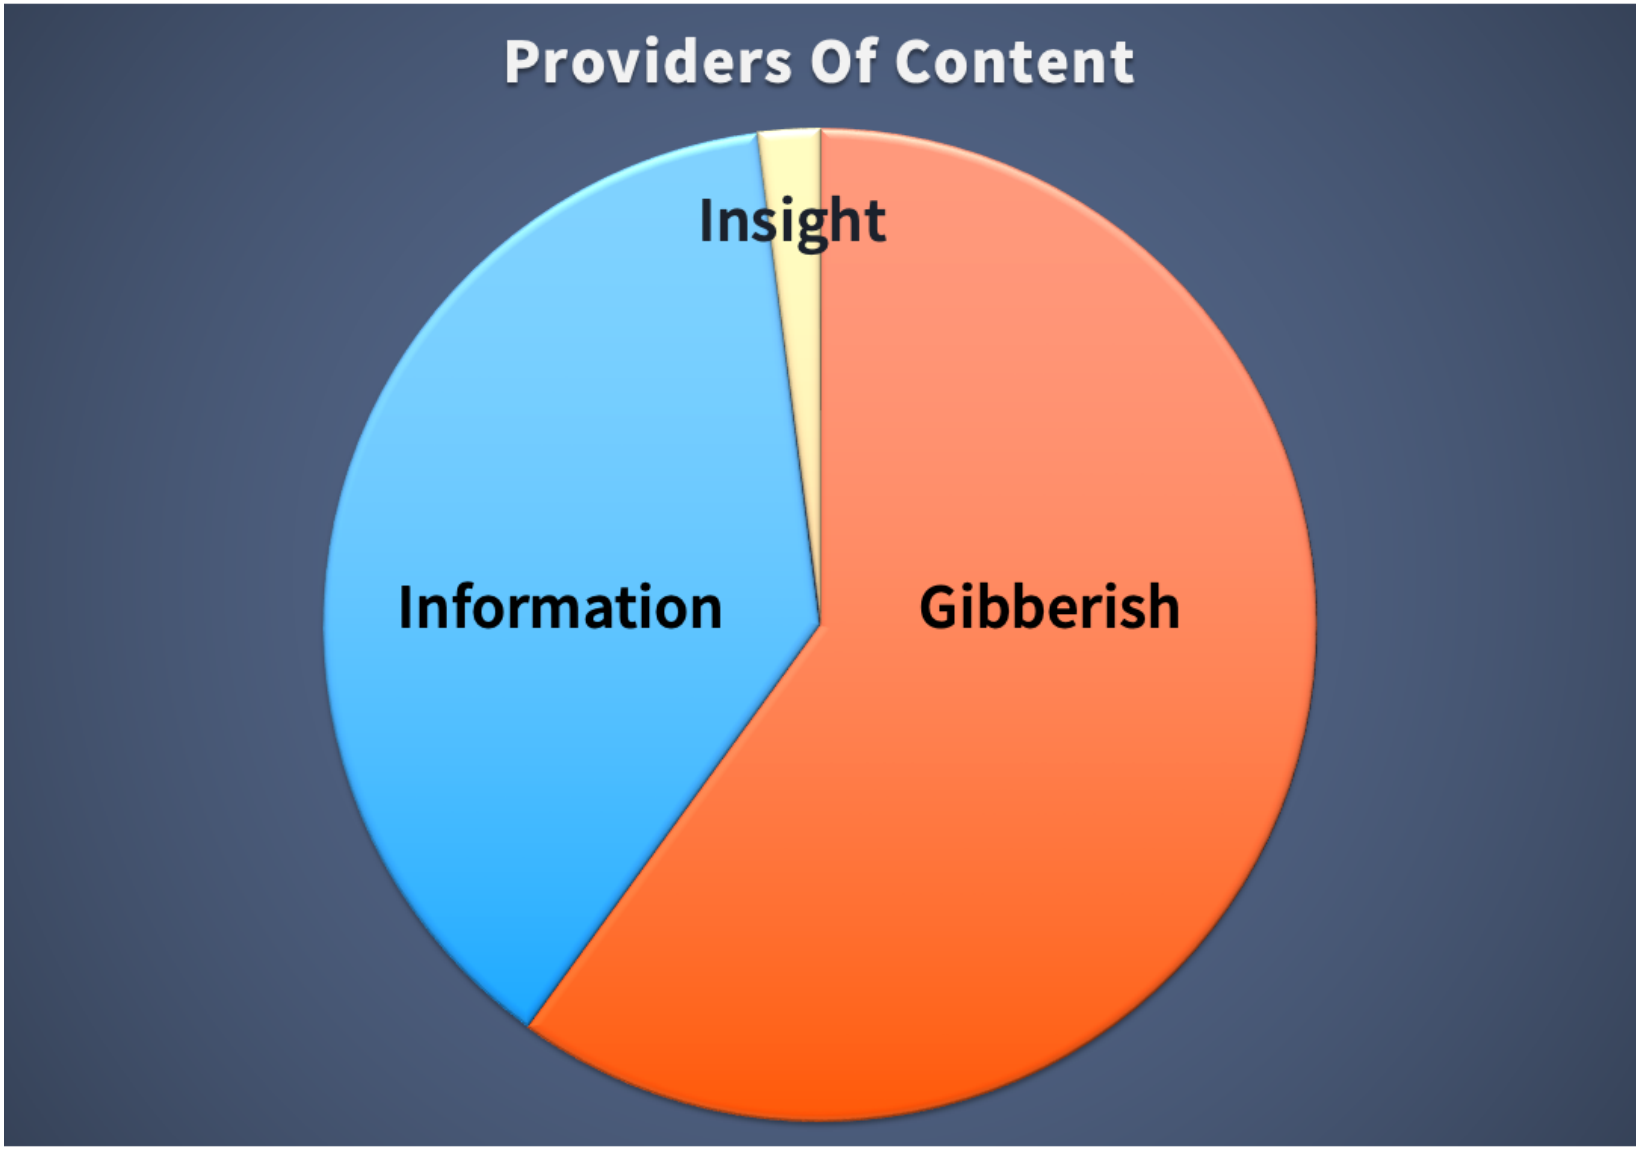

We're a global LinkedIn marketing agency, helping companies dominate on this platform without using any automation.

I'm confident you're fantastic at what you do, so our job is to let you focus on that whilst we focus on we do best, and get you in front of significantly more potential clients.

All I need is 10 minutes, when works in the next couple of days to run you through how it might look?
